

COUNCIL POLICY

SUBJECT : KEEPING OF POULTRY, BIRDS AND ANIMALS

REFERENCE : 1.3.1.1.16

RESOLUTION NR : 34/10/2002 DATE : 28 October 2002

POLICY PHILOSOPHY AND PRINCIPLES

The keeping of animals and poultry can be health hazard and can cause discomfort for adjoining inhabitants. Policy is essential to control and to regulate the keeping of animals and poultry..

GUIDELINES

1. Poultry and animals may only be kept with permission from the Council on land that is zoned for farming purposes.
2. Only persons that are members of a bona fide racing pigeon club, can with special permission from the Council keep racing pigeons on land which are zoned for single residential dwellings.
3. This policy is only applicable on proclaimed residential areas.

PROCEDURE

Applications to keep animals and poultry must be submitted in writing to the Council.

ROLES

Health Environmental Health Services

RELEVANT POLICIES

Keeping of Dogs

REPEALS/AMENDMENTS

This policy repeal all previous policies in this regard.